JETS DIRECTORS

The New York Jets Directors have earned the reputation as an aggressive group which will not settle for anything less than the best for its team. The Board has been the impetus for the remarkable transition of the troubled New York entry in the American Football League into one of the most colorful and successful franchises in pro football. Under their aegis, the club hired Weeb Ewbank as the first Jet coach and the move paid off with a World Championship in 1968 and two division titles (1968 & 1969).

Now the Directors have found themselves in an exciting period of activity as the team has forged ahead into a new era of accomplishments. In a period of two years the Directors have overseen the hiring of a new general manager, a new head coach and the building of a training center for the team.

Most recently, the Board, under the direction of President Philip H. Iselin, chose Al Ward as the club's general manager to replace retired Weeb Ewbank. "In our search for a general manager, Al Ward presented the background and experience that we were looking for," remarked Iselin on behalf of the Board.

Another dramatic step by the organization took place in September, 1974 when the Jets took occupancy of a new training center in Hempstead, Long Island. The million-dollar facility gives the team and coaches a full-time place to practice and prepare for games, alleviating the complications of sharing Shea Stadium with the Mets, Yankees and Giants.

Innovation is also something Iselin and his associates believe in. On February 1, 1973 the Board hired Charley Winner to be the successor to Weeb Ewbank as head coach of the Jets, but instead of waiting, they brought Winner into the organization as an assistant coach that very year so that he could have a period of learning before assuming the leadership duties. "I feel that by bringing Charley to our staff now," Iselin remarked at the time, "he will gain a full year of learning in our organization."

Three members of the Jets original Board of Directors have been a guiding force in this development since they acquired the team in 1963 — President Philip Iselin; Chairman of the Board Townsend B. Martin; and Vice President and Treasurer Leon Hess. Mrs. Helen Dillon, daughter of the late club president Donald Lillis, assumed the post of Vice President and Secretary in 1968 and has become one of the most respected women in professional sports.

PHILIP H. ISELIN, President, is a unique man in the world of sports since he occupies the top position in two major sporting concerns. In addition to his role as President of the New York Jets, Iselin also is President and Chairman of the Board of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, one of the nation's finest thoroughbred racing facilities. It is to Iselin's credit as a chief executive that both of his sporting connections are known to all as among the finest in their fields. As evidence of his work in racing, last winter Iselin was inducted into the Jockey Club. Iselin lives in Oceanport, N.J. and in 1969 was awarded an honorary doctorate of Humane Letters from Monmouth College (N.J.) for his contributions to the shore area.

TOWNSEND B. MARTIN, Chairman of the Board, is an internationally-known owner and breeder of thoroughbred race horses and a member of the Jockey Club. Martin is also engaged in the investment banking business with Bessemer Securities in New York City. An original backer of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club in 1946, he now serves on its Board of Directors.

LEON HESS, Vice President and Treasurer, is Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Amerada Hess Corporation. He also serves on the Board of Directors of the Monmouth Park Jockey Club, the American Broadcasting Corporation, and the Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company.

MRS. HELEN DILLON, Vice President and Secretary, is the daughter of the late Donald C. Lillis, former president of the Jets. Mrs. Dillon is a vivacious and enthusiastic football fan who is in regular attendance at every Jet game and function. She has become one of the most respected woman executives in sports and serves as the first woman on the Board of Directors of the Pop Warner Football Association. She resides with her husband, Dr. Thomas F. Dillon, and her family in Greenwich, Conn.

AL WARD

GENERAL MANAGER

"First class, astute, blue chip, efficient, quality person" — those are some of the words used to describe the New York Jets new general manager, Al Ward.

The quiet soft spoken Ward comes to the Jets from the Dallas Cowboys where he was, in effect, the assistant general manager for nine years. He was named Vice President of Administration in 1972 and the right hand man to the highly knowledgeable Tex Schramm.

"I think the Jets job is among the best in football," said Ward. "It's not easy to leave an organization like the Cowboys, but this is very exciting. It takes money, hard work and intelligence to produce a winner. I don't think the Jets have a shortage of any of those."

"In our search for a general manager, Al Ward presented the background and experience that we were looking for," said Jets president Phil Iselin.

"Al comes to us from an excellent organization that had a tradition of winning. He has the highest of recommendations from the most respected people in football. We feel very fortunate in having a man of Al's capabilities join our organization."

Ward, who was named to the GM post on February 13, has signed a three-year contract that calls for him to primarily negotiate player contracts, work on booking pre-season games, handle radio and pre-season TV contracts, administer the front office and work together with head coach Charley Winner on trades and player development.

"We're all very happy to have a man of Al's caliber with us," said Winner. "He is a man from a winning organization who can give us some new ideas which will help us in the future. I'm very impressed with his administrative knowledge of the NFL. He will be a strong asset to our entire organization and I look forward to working with him."

Tex Schramm, the president and general manager of the Cowboys said of Ward: "Al is one of those individuals who has been responsible for our success. His loss is going to be tough, but we are all delighted for him and for this opportunity in New York. I feel certain Al will make a great contribution to the Jets. He is a quality person and will be an asset to their organization."

"He's first class, a blue chip type of person," said Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach. "He's easy going, but he's also business. He has what I call that hard-soft look. You know you can't take advantage of him. But while he's firm and hard, he's also likeable. He'll do a heck of a job."

Ward joined the Cowboys in 1965 as director of public relations and became assistant general manager to Schramm in 1966 and has been, in effect, since then. He was named a vice president in 1972. It has been his main function to sign veteran players.

Prior to joining the Cowboys, Ward was director of public relations for the American Football League when it was based in Dallas, from 1960 through 1962. When the league moved its offices to New York, Ward became director of public relations for the Southwest Conference and the Cotton Bowl until rejoining the AFL in 1965 in New York as director of promotions.

He is a native of Brownsville, Texas and married to the former La Rue Jaudon (7-17-53). They have two daughters, Leslie (3-7-63), and Dana (7-26-64).

CHARLEY WINNER

HEAD COACH

Charley Winner, the head coach of the New York Jets, is an energetic man who has spent the past 21 years of his life coaching pro football. The 48-year old Winner is entering his second season as head coach after spending 1973 as an assistant.

Winner, formerly the head coach of the St. Louis Cardinals has an association with the National Football League which dates back to 1954 when he went to Baltimore as an assistant coach under Weeb Ewbank. In the course of 12 years with the Colts, Winner was in charge of the ends, the defensive backs, the linebackers and eventually took over the entire defense as head coordinator. He was the head defensive coach when the Colts annexed a pair of NFL crowns in 1958 and 1959 and when the team won or shared the Western title in 1964 and 1965.

In 1966 Winner accepted the head coaching position of the St. Louis Cardinals, a post he held for five years. During his time there he guided the Cards to a 35-30-5 record, the best mark in Cardinal annals. In 1970 the Cards defense put together a string of three straight shut-outs. Under his leadership the Cards set a team record for fewest rushing yards allowed in a season in 1966. In 1970 his Cards were in playoff contention right until the end and finished with an 8-5-1 record after being 4-9-1 in 1969.

Winner moved to the Washington Redskins as coach of the defensive backs in 1971 and helped propel the Redskins into the playoffs and Super Bowl.

Winner has also been associated with Ewbank throughout his life. He has played and coached under Ewbank, and on the personal side, he married Ewbank's daughter, Nancy, on June 23, 1950.

Winner's coaching career began as an assistant under Weeb at Washington University in St. Louis in 1948. Winner stayed there two years (only one under Ewbank) before heading for Case Tech where he served under Lou Saban. He was re-united with his father-in-law in 1954 at Baltimore and remained there after Ewbank left in 1963.

"I decided to stay at Baltimore," he recalls, "because I felt it was time to strike out on my own, rather than continue to be associated with Weeb forever, though he and I had a fine working relationship."

A native of Somerville, N.J., Winner was born either on July 2 or 3, 1925, depending on whether you read the birth certificate or listen to his mother. "My birth certificate says July 3," says Winner, "but my mother always said I was born on July 2, so I celebrate both of them."

He was a fine high school halfback but too small for major college notice. With the help of a high school friend who was enrolled there, Winner was offered a scholarship at Southeast Missouri State College, Cape Girardeau, Mo.

Winner made the freshman squad in 1941, but was drafted into the Army in the spring of 1942. He became a radio operator and gunner in the Air Force, flew 17 missions over Germany and was shot down in the spring of 1945, spending 6 weeks in a prisoner of war camp before the war ended.

Returning to his education, he enrolled at Washington University where he earned a pair of letters as a halfback and three as a sprinter and also his wife. He received his B.S. degree in 1949.

Winner and his wife have two daughters, Cinda, (6-2-52), and Lisa, (6-7-57).

1974 JETS GAME BY GAME

KANSAS CITY 24, NEW YORK 16 — At Arrowhead Stadium, attendance, 77,294 paid, 74,854 actual, partly cloudy and warm. Two big plays by the Chiefs, both interception returns for touchdowns, spoiled a fine overall Jet performance in the 1974 debut. As the Jets were moving to increase a 16-7 lead near the half, Marvin Upshaw tore the ball from John Riggins hands on a pass play and ran 52 yards for the score. Then, in the fourth quarter, Emmitt Thomas picked off a Joe Namath sideline pass and went 38 yards for a score to seal up a 24-16 victory for KC. The Jets dominated the game overall, but six turnovers and a spate of dropped balls nullified the effort. Riggins led the way with 116 yards on 22 carries, while Namath threw TDs to Ed Bell and Rich Caster.

The Jets hung up 20 first half points and then had to hang on against a furious Bears comeback to win, 23-21. Joe Namath hit on 16 of 23 for 257 yards, but Gary Huff of Chicago led the second half charge, finishing 18-37-267. Jerome Barkum, with 5 catches, and Richard Caster, with 3, were the big guns for the Jets as the team piled up 381 yards which proved to be the third best effort of the season. The game ended in a wild melee, with three successive penalties on Chicago after a fight broke out in the Jet bench area.

BUFFALO 16, NEW YORK 12 — At Orchard Park, attendance 80,020 paid, 76,978 actual, high winds and heavy rain. Playing in gale conditions, Jim Braxton scored on a fourth quarter, 21-yard run, to give the Bills a 16-12 victory. The Jets offense, potent the week before in Chicago, was stymied at every turn by the weather and Joe Namath was forced into his lowest totals ever, 2-18-33. The Bills' Joe Ferguson completed no passes, but O.J. Simpson and Braxton took up the slack with 201 rushing yards between them. John Riggins scored on a 13-yard run and Bobby Howfield connected on two FGs to give the Jets a 12-10 margin until Braxton's run. The wind was such that no passes were completed until 2 minutes remained, and 25 of the 28 points were scored by the team with the wind at its back.

MIAMI 21, NEW YORK 17 — At The Orange Bowl, attendance 78,200 paid, 60,727 actual, warm and humid. After a first half which saw the Jets gain only 106 yards total, the Big Green came alive and gave the defending World Champs, Miami, a strong run before bowing, 21-17. A 41-yard burst by Hubert Ginn early in the fourth quarter provided the Dolphins with the winning margin as the Jets rallied from a 14-0 deficit. Joe Namath destroyed the famed "53" defense with a show of 17-39-290-2, but the ground game could only net 41 yards. Bob Griese excelled with 17-23-190 and also handed off for another 159 yards. The final score came on the longest pass play in Jet history, 89 yards from Namath to Richard Caster, but Namath's final desperation toss was intercepted at the 19 yardline to end the comeback.

NEW ENGLAND 24, NEW YORK 0 — At Shea Stadium, attendance 61,400 paid, 57,825 actual, cool and cloudy. The Jets opening day at home was spoiled by the Patriots, who rolled convincingly to their fifth straight victory, 24-0. The shutout was the first for the Jets in 39 games and first ever at home. The Jet offense bogged down, and finished with a net of only 173 yards, compared to New England's 321. Sam Cunningham scored two TDs, while Jim Plunkett passed 11-21-115. Namath was continually harrassed by the Patriots 3-man line defensive formation and was dumped four times. The Jets only penetrated beyond the Patriots' 30 yardline once and that threat was wiped out by an interception. The dismal performance overshadowed John Riggins' second 100-yard day of the year.

The Colts, in Joe Thomas' bow as head coach, thoroughly dominated the Jets to post their first win of the season. Bert Jones ran and passed the Colts to a 28-7 lead before the Jets offense could get any consistency going. Thirteen of the Jets points came in the final 2½ minutes of play, and up to that point the team had gained only 31 net yards. Lydell Mitchell set an NFL record with 40 rushing attempts (156 yds.) while Jones went 11-17-106-1. Burgess Owens scored on a fumble recovery and David Knight and Jerome Barkum caught Namath TDPs.

LOS ANGELES 20, NEW YORK 13 — At Shea Stadium, attendance 61,450 paid, 56,110 actual, mild and sunny. The Jets put forth their best effort of the year, but it was not quite enough to best the playoff bound Rams, who left with a 20-13 victory. New York led, 13-6, heading into the fourth quarter behind the running of Mike Adamle (subbing for injured Riggins) and Emerson Boozer and the inventive play-calling of Joe Namath (19-32-155). But Charlie Stukes intercepted a Namath pass and it set up the winning touchdown by Lawrence McCutcheon after 39 seconds of the quarter. Only 21 seconds earlier McCutcheon had tied the game with a 23-yard run, set up by a fine kickoff return. With James Harris making his first start at QB for the Rams, McCutcheon and Jim Bertelson did yeoman duty with 206 yards rushing between them.

HOUSTON 27, NEW YORK 22 — At Shea Stadium, attendance 60,343 paid, 47,218 actual, cool and drizzling. Dan Pastorini rallied the Oilers in the final two minutes of the game to snatch success away from the Jets, 27-22, and send the New Yorkers to a club record-tying sixth straight defeat. Bobby Howfield had given New York a 22-20 lead with 4 minutes to play, but four Pastorini passes (one a 52-yarder to Ken Burrough) and two runs gave the Oilers the lead and the game. Joe Namath threw 19-30-256 but Houston's big plays, including a last minute interception, made the difference.

NEW YORK JETS 26, NEW YORK GIANTS 20 — At Yale Bowl, attendance 67,740 paid, 64,327 actual, cool and clear. In one of the most exciting contests in New York football history, the Jets broke out of their slump with a tingling 26-20 overtime victory against their crosstown foes, the Giants. Joe Namath threw a 5-yard touchdown pass to Emerson Boozer after 6:53 of the fifth quarter to end the struggle which saw fortunes sway back and forth throughout. Namath was superb in his effort, hitting 20-31-236-2 and calling a masterful running game to complement his arm. Twice the Jets tied the score in the second half (13-13 and 20-all), once on a Pat Leahy field goal and once on Namath's 3-yard run for a score, his first TD since 1969. The Jets had a chance to win in regulation, but Leahy's 19-yard FG try was blocked. Pete Gogolak missed a 42-yarder in overtime before Namath directed the winning drive, consisting of 3 passes and 3 runs.

NEW YORK 21, NEW ENGLAND 16 — At Schaefer Stadium, attendance 61,279 paid, 57,115 actual, cool and cloudy. Joe Namath's late third-quarter TD pass to David Knight held up as the Jets won their second in a row, 21-16, at New England. Jim Plunkett then tried to rally the Pats, but two late fourth-quarter thrusts deep in Jet territory could not snap a stiffened Jet defense. The Jets secondary carried the honors for the day, earning game balls and holding off New England every time it needed to, as well as pickkick off four interceptions (Howell 2, Sowell, Word 1 each).

Joe Namath fired a 45-yard touchdown pass with 5 minutes to play that vaulted the Jets to a third straight victory and an upset over Miami, 17-14. Namath's toss to Caster was the pair's second TDP of the game as the Jets rallied from behind. Jim Klick with a 6-yard TDP from Bob Griese had put the Dolphins ahead, 14-10, with only 6½ minutes to play before Namath and Caster went to work. A staunch defensive effort anchored the victory as New York intercepted Griese once, recovered 3 fumbles and held Miami to only 236 yards. The final Dolphin effort was defused by a Roscoe Word interception.

A championship game record crowd of 62,627 sat in on the chilly and windy proceedings at Shea Stadium and saw Joe Namath toss three touchdown passes (2 to Don Maynard, 1 to Pete Lammons). In addition, Jim Turner, the league's leading scorer, booted two field goals.

Despite the fact that Namath attempted a record 49 passes, the Jets still mixed their attack and Matt Snell and Emerson Boozer gained 71 and 51 yards, respectively, behind fine blocking from the front line.

Oakland, bidding for its second straight crown, was led by the passing arm of Daryle Lamonica, who passed for 401 yards. Their running attack was blunted by the Jets league leading defense which held Hewitt Dixon & Co. to 44 yards. The Raiders carried the game down to the final minutes before Lamonica's lateral pass for Charlie Smith rolled free and was recovered by the Jets' Ralph Baker.

The victory gave head coach Weeb Ewbank the honor of being the first coach to win titles in both the NFL and AFL.

SUPER BOWL III

Defying the oddsmakers (17½ point underdogs) and the strength of traditions, the Jets became the first AFL team to win the Super Bowl by rumbling over and through the Baltimore Colts to record a 16-7 triumph. A crowd of 75,377 witnessed the spectacle in Miami's Orange Bowl.

As it was in the AFL championship contest, Joe Namath led the way. The all-pro quarterback directed the Jets' attack flawlessly, driving the team to a second quarter touchdown by Matt Snell (4 yards), and three second-half field goals by Jim Turner. Snell had an outstanding game, gaining 121 yards on 30 carries. The blocking and pass protection offered by the Jets line was superb.

But the defense shared at least as much glory as the offensive unit, intercepting the Colts four times. Randy Beverly picked off two, Jim Hudson and Johnny Sample one each. The defensive unit harrassed Colts' quarterbacks Earl Morrall and Johnny Unitas all afternoon, allowing them to complete only 17 of 41 passes. The one touchdown represented the lowest point output by the powerful Colts in 35 games. The victory was the third in World Championship competition in as many tries for Weeb Ewbank and thus made him the first man ever to coach World Champions in both the AFL and NFL.

1969 AFL PLAYOFF

For the second year in a row the Jets entered the American Football League playoffs as champions of the Eastern Division. Under the playoff scheme devised for 1969 the Big Green had to meet the second-place team in the Western Division in order to advance to the championship game. Thus, on December 20 the Jets entertained Kansas City at Shea Stadium in the first step toward another Super Bowl.

The game was a classic battle of defenses, played in remarkably cold and windy conditions before a sellout 62,977 fans. Through the first three quarters neither team could penetrate for a touchdown and the score stood at 6-3 for the Chiefs. Jim Turner had put New York out in front, 3-0, with a 28-yard field goal the first time the Jets had the ball, but the Chiefs' Jan Stenerud retaliated with a 23-yarder on the next series.

Not until the fourth quarter did the breaks occur. With first and goal to go on the one yardline, three cracks, including a Joe Namath bootleg failed to bring a touchdown. Turner then kicked a 7-yard field goal to tie it 6-6.

Two plays later Kansas City was in the end zone. Len Dawson hit Otis Taylor for a 61-yard pass play to take the Chiefs to the Jet 19. Then Dawson fired the final 19 yards to Gloster Richardson for the only touchdown of the game.

Namath threw 20 passes over the next two Jets series, but a fourth-down incomplection and a Jim Marsalis interception thwarted the Jets and put Kansas City on the road to the World Championship.
